

"Excuse me," he said. "I just have to put some things away."

"He's been very tidy recently," his mother told Aunt Jo. "He's growing up so fast."

As Bryn put away his trucks and his books, he didn't really feel bad that Clare couldn't play with them. It meant he had a little more time to have the big, blue truck all to himself. He would lend her his big, blue bear instead. After all, there's nothing like a baby to make you feel much more grown-up than you've ever been before.

7 Why did Bryn put his toys away?

8 What did Bryn decide to give Clare to play with?

9 Think about the whole story.
